

EU Tax Policy Report

Semester II 2021

CFE's EU Tax Policy Report provides a detailed analysis of primary tax policy developments at EU level of interest to European tax advisers. It also includes an overview of relevant CJEU case-law European Commission decisions covering the first half of 2021.

AUTHORS

Brodie McIntosh and Aleksandar Ivanovski

DATE ISSUED

14 January 2022

Dear Sir/Madam,

CFE Tax Advisers Europe has now published its EU Tax Policy Report covering the period of July to December 2021. The EU Tax Policy Report is a bi-annual publication which provides a detailed analysis of significant primary law and tax policy developments at both EU and international level that have occurred in the previous six months which would be of interest to European tax advisers. It also includes an overview of selected CJEU case-law and relevant European Commission decisions.

We invite you to read the EU Tax Policy Report, and remain available for any questions or comments that you may have.

Kind regards,

The Office Team at CFE Tax Advisers Europe