

CFE Tax Advisers Europe

Albert J. Rädler Medal Award

Encouraging Academic Excellence in European Taxation

CFE Tax Advisers Europe is pleased to announce the 2022 Albert J. Rädler Medal Award. CFE Tax Advisers Europe is a Brussels-based umbrella association representing European tax institutes and associations of tax advisers. Founded in 1959, CFE brings together 32 national organisations from 25 European countries.

CFE established the Albert J. Rädler Medal Award in 2013 to encourage academic excellence among young tax students and to commemorate the late Professor Albert J. Rädler (1933 – 2012).

We welcome applications from tax students who fulfil the following criteria:

- Master's dissertation by a student having achieved distinction in the relevant calendar year (2022/2023) on topics of European Taxation (taxation policy or tax law). The degree awarded can be Master's Degree in Taxation, Tax Law or Tax Policy (MA, MSc or LLM).
- Young students: The prize shall be awarded to a student aged 35 years or under on the 31st December 2023.
- Language requirements: dissertation written in English or translated into English.
- Application: Please send a PDF of your dissertation alongside an updated CV indicating your date of birth.
- Deadline: to be submitted by 05 March 2023 via email.
- Award: The Medal winner will be announced at the CFE Forum on 20 April 2023 in Brussels.
- The CFE shall arrange travel and accommodation for the successful candidate, free access to the CFE conference and complimentary academic literature from our publishing partner IBFD.

Please send the applications until 05 March 2023 to the attention of Ms. Karima Baakil, CFE Tax Advisers Europe, Office Manager, via email at: info@taxadviserseurope.org.
