

The European Conference on Tax Advisers' Professional Affairs

"New regulatory trends for tax advisers - necessary or not?"

Tuesday 29 November 2011

Belgian Institute of Tax Advisers and Accountants, Bvd Emile Jacqmain 135/2, Brussels

13.30 - 14.00	Admission
14.00 - 14.10	Welcome by André Bert , President of the Belgian Institute of Tax Advisers and Accountants, Belgium
14.10 - 14.30	Introduction by Ian Hayes , Chairman of the CFE Professional Affairs Committee "Regulation of the tax profession in Europe"
14.30 - 15.30	Session 1:  Pamela Brumter-Coret , European Commission, Head of Unit E1, DG Internal Market and Services "Regulation versus internal market freedoms - is there a contradiction ?"  Brian Redford , Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC), United Kingdom "What do tax administrations expect from professional tax advisers ?"
15.30 - 16.00	Coffee Break
16.00 - 16.30	Session 2:  Herbert Becherer , CFE Vice President  Dick Barmentlo , KPMG, The Netherlands "Regulating professional tax advice - Looking for best practice"
16.30 - 17.30	Panel discussion:  Introduction into the discussion by the moderator Ian Hayes "What is the future of professional regulation ?"
17.30	Cocktail reception

